The deadline to request exclusion from the Settlement is [date].
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you may object to it by following the procedures below and submitting your specific objection in writing. The deadline to object to the Settlement is [date].
DO NOTHING	If you do nothing, you will not receive the benefits that this Settlement provides and you will give up the right to sue Defendants in a separate lawsuit about the claims this Settlement resolves.

1. Why is there a Notice?

A Federal Court authorized this Notice because you have a right to know about the proposed Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval of the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, and who is eligible to receive them.

Judge John A. Ross of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri is overseeing this class action. The case is known as In Re Ashley Madison Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, Case No. 4:15-MD-02669-JAR (E.D. Mo.).

2. What is this lawsuit about?

In June 2015, Avid announced that it has experienced an intrusion of its computer network by an unauthorized person or persons who subsequently publicly released personal information of Avid customers.

The Action was filed after Avid's announcement of the Data Breach. In the Action, Plaintiffs allege violation of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act; violation of the Federal Stored Communications Act; negligence; negligence per se; breach of implied contract; breach of contract; unjust enrichment; negligent misrepresentation; violation of state consumer fraud and protection statutes; violation of the California Customer Records Act; and violation of state data breach notice statutes.

The Parties now agree to settle the Action in its entirety, without any admission of liability by Defendants. The Parties intend this Agreement to bind Settlement Class Representatives, Defendants, and all Settlement Class Members who do not timely and properly exclude themselves from the Settlement.

3. What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called Plaintiffs or Class Representatives (in this case, Brian Farr, Steven Coward, Marc Benefield, Nhung Truong, Gustavo Alfaro, David Yagel, John Hiles III, Matthew Lisuzzo, Britt Garrett, Christopher Russell, David Miller, James Mike Shows, Todd Witengier, Byron Goetting, Marvin Cabiness, Keith Macomber, Paul Jack, and Anthony Imbarrato) sue on behalf of other people who have similar claims. The people included in the class action are called a Settlement Class or Settlement Class Members. One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who timely exclude themselves from the Class.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of Plaintiffs or Defendants. Instead, both sides agreed to this Settlement, in order to avoid the cost and burden of further litigation and so the Class Members can receive benefits. The Class Representatives and their attorneys believe the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution of the claims asserted in this lawsuit.

5. How do I know whether I am part of the Settlement?

You are part of the Settlement Class if you are a United States resident who used Ashley Madison on or before July 20, 2015.

Excluded from the Settlement Class are the judge presiding over this matter, any members of his judicial staff, the officers and directors of Avid, and persons who timely and validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class.

6. What if I am still not sure whether I am part of the Settlement?

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Settlement Class, you can call toll-free [\[phone number\]](#), visit the Settlement Website: www.WebsiteDataBreach.com, or send an email to the Settlement Administrator at WebsiteDataBreach@AdministratorClassAction.com.

7. How do I know if I am eligible for monetary Settlement benefits?

All Settlement Class Members who are Eligible Claimants and submit valid and timely Claims are eligible to receive monetary benefits. Eligible Claimants are the Settlement Class Members who used Ashley Madison on or before July 20, 2015 including, but not limited to, all persons whose Personal Information was compromised or released publicly as a result of the Data Breach, who purchased the Paid Delete or Full Delete option on Ashley Madison, who suffered losses as a result of the Data Breach, or who purchased credits and have a good faith belief that they used those credits to interact with “engagers” or “bots” on Ashley Madison. To read more about submitting a Claim Form, see section 9 below.

8. What are the Settlement benefits?

The Settlement creates a Settlement Fund in the total amount of up to $11,200,000. The Settlement Fund shall be applied to pay, in the following order:

- (1) All costs and payments associated with the Notice Program and administration of the Settlement Fund, including all payments to the Settlement Administrator;
- (2) Any necessary taxes and tax expenses on the Settlement Fund;
- (3) Any award of attorneys' fees and costs as approved by the Court to Class Counsel under the Settlement Agreement;
- (4) Any Service Award as approved by the Court, but in no event to exceed $5,000 per Class Representative; and
- (5) Cash benefits submitted by the Settlement Class Member.

Each Settlement Class Member may file a Claim that will, if determined by the Settlement Administrator to be a valid and legitimate Claim, entitle the Class Member to a cash payment and distribution from the Settlement Fund as follows:

- (1) First, Settlement Class Members who submit a Valid Claim Form and Reasonable Documentation demonstrating that he or she purchased Full Delete on or prior to July 20, 2015 and his or her Personal Information was released publicly as a result of the Data Breach will have a recognized loss of nineteen dollars ($19) for each Full Delete purchase. In the case that a Settlement Class Member purchased more than one Full Delete, Settlement Class Members submitting such a claim shall in no event have a recognized loss greater than five hundred dollars ($500).
- (2) Second, Settlement Class Members who submit a Valid Claim Form and Reasonable Documentation demonstrating that he or she purchased or used credits and have a good faith belief that they used those credits to communicate with Engagers will have a recognized loss equal to one dollar ($1) for every one dollar ($1) spent for such purpose. Settlement Class Members submitting such a claim shall in no event have a recognized loss greater than five hundred dollars ($500).
- (3) Third, Settlement Class Members who submit a Valid Claim Form and Reasonable Documentation of any unreimbursed loss caused by the Data Breach not described above, including, but not limited to, alleged identity theft, will have a recognized loss equal to one dollar ($1) for every one dollar ($1) spent for such purpose. Settlement Class Members submitting such a claim shall in no event have a recognized loss greater than two thousand dollars ($2000) for such unreimbursed loss.
- (4) If the total recognized loss for the Claims in Sections (1) to (3) exceed the Net Settlement Fund, the Net Settlement fund will be allocated on a pro rata basis based on each claims recognized loss as compared to all recognized loss for all Claims described in sections (1) to (3). If total recognized loss for the Claims described in sections (1) to (3) equal or exceed the Net Settlement Fund, claims made pursuant to Section (6) shall not receive a distribution.
- (5) If the total recognized loss for the Claims in Sections (1) to (3) is less than or equal to the Net Settlement Fund, Claims made under Sections (1) to (3) will receive a distribution equal to their recognized loss.
- (6) Any funds remaining in the Settlement Fund after the above payments shall be distributed as follows:

- i. Remaining funds will be divided equally amongst Settlement Class Members who submit a Valid Claim Form and Reasonable Documentation demonstrating that his or her Personal Information was released publicly as a result of the Data Breach. Settlement Class Members submitting such a claim are eligible to receive no more than five hundred dollars ($500) for such claim. In the event that the pro rata distribution of funds to these class members is less than $10, i.e., it is impractical, the remaining Net Settlement Fund shall not be distributed to Class Member making a claim under this Section but rather distributed pursuant to below:
- ii. If the amounts paid above do not exhaust the Settlement Fund (or the cost to administer and distribute payment makes distribution impractical), then the remaining funds in the Settlement Fund will be donated to one or more Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) charitable digital privacy or similar organizations chosen jointly by Class Counsel (on behalf of the Settlement Class) and Defendants (a "Charity").

As soon as practicable after the Claims Deadline and subject to any deficiency or denial process under section 8.5 herein, cash benefits will be distributed pursuant to section 8 herein up to a maximum of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) per class member. In no event shall the cash benefits be distributed prior to the Effective Date.

Business Practice Changes

Avid has implemented numerous remedial measures to further enhance the security of its customers' data, including, but not limited to, the measures set out below. These measures remain in effect as of the date of the Settlement Agreement:

- i. Completed a comprehensive third-party review of the protections it has in place to secure personal information;
- ii. Implemented an enhanced comprehensive information security program to protect the security, confidentiality, and integrity of personal information collected from consumers;
- iii. Created and filled the position of Chief Information Security Officer;
- iv. Provided the Full Delete option free of charge;
- v. Updated its practices related to the retention of Personal Information of users who are inactive or have deactivated their accounts to ensure that it is not holding Personal Information beyond an appropriate retention period; and
- vi. Implemented enhanced mandatory security training for employees.

Avid further represents that after the announcement of the Data Breach and the filing of this Action, Avid searched for websites that had posted actual or alleged copies of the hacked personal information and also reviewed other websites posting such information that were brought to its attention. For each site that it determined violated applicable terms and conditions or law, Avid sent takedown letters to the website's owners or service providers. After Avid issued such letters, many of the websites removed the offending content, including, for example, ashleymadisonleakeddata.com, www.cheaterleak.com, checkashleymadison.com, and isheonthelist.weebly.com.

The Parties further acknowledge that after the filing of this Action, Avid entered into discussions with the Federal Trade Commission, the states of Alaska, Arkansas, Hawaii, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi,

North Dakota, Nebraska, New York, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee, and Vermont, and the District of Columbia for the purpose of resolving allegations that it had deceived Ashley Madison customers, including the Settlement Class Members, and failed to protect their account and profile information in relation to the Data Breach. As a consequence, Avid entered into a settlement agreement requiring it to implement a comprehensive data security program for the benefit of its customers, including the Settlement Class Members, including third party assessments, and a payment of $1,657,000 to resolve claims of consumer deception and other claims similar to those alleged in this Action. This payment was made by Avid with no admission of liability.

The foregoing paragraphs recite only some of the business practice changes and other actions that Avid has undertaken following the Data Breach and the filing of this Action. The recitation of these actions is intended to provide information to Class Members and the Court about some of Avid's actions following the Data Breach and the filing of this Action relating to the Data Breach. Avid may, in its discretion, amend the business practices described above or adopt other or alternate cybersecurity business practices in the future that are consistent with the business practices described above.

Section 1542 provides that:

For the avoidance of doubt, the Released Claims include any claims that a Releasing Party may have under the law of any jurisdiction, including, without limitation, those arising under state or federal law of the United States, including, but not limited to, the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, the Federal Stored Communications Act, state consumer fraud and protection statutes, state data breach notice statutes, and the California Customer Records Act; claims under the common or civil laws of any state or other jurisdiction in the United States, including, but not limited to, negligence, negligence per se, breach of contract, breach of implied contract, unjust enrichment, misrepresentation (whether fraudulent, negligent, or innocent), bailment, conversion, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, fraudulent concealment or nondisclosure, invasion of privacy, public disclosure of private facts, and misappropriation of likeness and identity; any causes of action based on privacy rights provided for under the constitutions of the United States or of any states or jurisdictions in the United States; and also including, but not limited to, any and all claims in any state or federal court of the United States, for damages, injunctive relief, restitution, disgorgement, declaratory relief, equitable relief, attorneys' fees and expenses, pre-judgment interest, credit or financial account monitoring services, identity theft insurance, the creation of a fund for future damages, statutory penalties, restitution, the appointment of a receiver, and any other form of relief.

Upon entry of the Final Approval Order, the Settlement Class Members shall be enjoined from prosecuting any claim they have released in the preceding paragraphs in any proceeding against any of the Released Parties or based on any actions taken by any of the Released Parties that are authorized or required by this Agreement or by the Final Approval Order. It is further agreed that the Settlement Agreement may be pleaded as a complete defense to any proceeding subject to this section.
